

Laos Princes Come to An Agreement

By ANTOINE YARED

KHANG KHAY, Laos (AP)—The rival Laotian princes agreed today on the Cabinet for a coalition government aimed at ending the civil war and adding Laos to the ranks of the world's neutral nations.

Neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma, the premier-designate, announced the agreement, climaxing negotiations instituted by the 14-nation conference on Laos at Geneva 13 months ago.

Premier Prince Boun Oum of the present royal Laotian government is stepping out of government affairs, happily, he said. However, the strong man of his regime, Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, will sit in as deputy premier and minister of finance under Souvanna.

Another deputy premiership and the economy portfolio will go to Prince Souphanouvong, chief of the proCommunist Pathet Lao and half brother of the premier-designate.

Though domestic problems still abound, the three princes and their aides emerged happily from a meeting that wound up conferences begun in this rebel stronghold last week.

Results of 4-H Club Activity Day

The second annual 4-H Club Activity Day was a success, according to county Extension agents Mrs. Bettie Duncan and Calvin Caldwell.

The event, held at the city hall and fair park on Friday of last week, included a baking contest, dress revue, talent contest, method demonstrations and tractor driving contest.

Winners in the various events are as follows: Baking contest, Helen McCorkle of the Victory 4-H club was sweepstakes winner; Patsy Smith, Triple A Club, senior division winner in baking; Dress Revue, Jenny Lee Waters of Triple A 4-H Club; Talent, sweepstakes winner, Robert Cash of Victory Club; Method Demonstrations, junior division, Calvin Williams, DeAnn 4-H Club; senior division, Linda Arrington, Shover Springs 4-H Club.

Jimmy Carver, DeAnn Club was the senior division winner of the tractor driving contest. Jimmy Rowe won first place honors in the junior division of tractor driving contest. Jimmy is from the Victory 4-H Club and this makes the third year that he has won the contest.

A total of 87 4-H Club members entered the contests. Many more members, leaders and parents attended and helped out with the activity.

Two Riders Have to Stand Trial

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP)—Two "Reverse Freedom Riders" face court today on gun charges.

Some 40 other southern Negroes will be transferred from a Cape Cod Community College dormitory to make room for summer students to unused Army barracks at Camp Edwards, some 18 miles distant.

Due in court are Edward W. Burton, 44, of Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. Eliza Davis of Cuba, Ala.

They were charged last week with illegal possession of a pistol which Mrs. Davis allegedly brought with her from Alabama. Burton was arrested June 4 when a policeman said he saw Burton allegedly attempting to remove a jammed cartridge from the gun.

Among those who will be moved in Army buses today are Matthew Gilbert, 27, his 21-year-old wife, and their four children.

They and Jerry Hall, 53, arrived Sunday from Shreveport, La., where they said they were promised jobs and housing in this Cape Cod community where President Kennedy has a summer home.

Selectman E. Thomas Murphy, who met the seven, placed Hall in a small motel, at town expense, hoping to find work for him today. The Gilberts all went to the college dormitory.

All arrived virtually penniless and with little luggage.

Five other destitute Negroes reportedly sent to Hyannis from Montgomery, Ala., last Wednesday, have not arrived.

Sixty penniless, homeless, jobless Negroes have been sent to Hyannis by white southerners who provided non-redeemable, one-way bus tickets and pocket money.

High Court Won't Review Beck Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to review the conviction of Dave Beck, former Teamsters Union president, on charges of filing false federal tax returns for the union for 1950 and 1952.

The high tribunal, in a May 14 decision on another appeal, affirmed conviction of Beck on a charge of embezzlement of $1,900 from the sale of an automobile owned by the union. He was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment on the embezzlement conviction.

The sentence was pronounced in a Washington State court.

Beck's conviction on the tax charge was in federal court in Tacoma, Wash., in 1958. He was sentenced there to five years in prison and fined $20,000.

The U. S. Circuit Court in San Francisco on Jan. 20, 1962, upheld Beck's conviction of filing false tax returns for his union. At the same time it set aside his conviction of evading more than $240,000 in income taxes. The Circuit Court called for a new trial on the evasion charges, on which Beck had been sentenced to five years and $40,000 fine.

Recommends Withholding ESD Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Civil Service Commission examiner recommended today that federal funds be withheld from the Arkansas Employment Security Division at Little Rock because of Hatch Act violations.

A spokesman said Examiner Andrew Goodhope recommended that $30,600 be withheld from funds the Labor Department allocates to the Employment Security Division.

Commission action on the recommendation is expected within about two weeks, the spokesman added.

The commission previously found that three persons working for the agency had violated the Hatch Act, which limits political activities by some federal employees and state officials and employees engaged in activities financed by federal funds.

Luxury Train Leaves Track, One Child Dies

By JACK ZYGMOND

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—A Northern Pacific luxury train shot off a mountain curve in western Montana Sunday, killing a child and injuring 219 of its 350 passengers.

Only two of the 17 cars remained on the rails in the dawn derailment, which may cost the railroad $1 million.

The other 15 cars of the Seattle-to-Chicago North Coast Limited catapulted down a 100-foot embankment 15 miles northwest of Missoula.

Two of the olive-green passenger cars plunged all the way to the bottom, coming to rest in a ditch along U.S. Highway 93 and 10A.

The nose of one car smashed deep into the ditch, scooping up mud that buried Teresa Ann Dooms of Ekalaka, Mont. Teresa, who would have been 3 June 30, was the first North Coast Limited passenger to be killed in 62 years.

Investigators are looking into the possibility of air brake failure. Reports from passengers and train personnel suggested the train was exceeding the 35-m.p.h. speed limit for the curve.

The train's speed recorder tape will be given to Interstate Commerce Commission investigators, a Northern Pacific official said at St. Paul, Min. He wouldn't divulge what the recorder showed, except to say the speed was a "good deal slower" than 100 m.p.h.

The derailment came a little more than three months after the same train, westbound, ran off the tracks and into a lake near Athol, Idaho. Two crewmen were killed in that wreck. Its cause is still a mystery.

Most of the passengers were sleeping or just awakening at 4:40 a.m. as the train crashed a mile short of a trestle that spans a 300 foot canyon.

The body of the Dooms child was clawed out of the mud by a frantic woman. Another child buried in mud in the same car was rescued.

The train had passed over one mile of an eight-mile descent on winding Evoro Hill, which drops 1,100 feet.

"I noticed we were starting to pick up speed," said Jesse O'Connor of Chicago, a Pullman porter. "All of a sudden, I noticed such a fast rate of speed that I got dizzy."

Wendell Wardell of Billings, Mont., a passenger, said, "We were going so fast that our car leaned way over to one side. The car rocked back and forth twice, and I could observe the second car jackknife and pull the rest of it."

U. S. to Make High Test in Pacific Series

BY ROBERT MYERS

HONOLULU (AP)—Extension of the United States high altitude danger area around Johnston Island was seen today as a preliminary to the firing of the biggest nuclear blast of the Pacific test series.

There was no official comment from Joint Task Force 8 on the precise altitude and size of the detonation but unofficial sources said it will be from 50 to 500 times as powerful as the bomb that destroyed Hiroshima.

There have been reports it will be of several megatons in force. A megaton blast is the equivalent of the explosion of a million tons of TNT.

The big blast will be set off about 200 miles high, the sources said. It will be the highest and biggest nuclear shot in U.S. history and will be seen in Hawaii, 750 miles northeast of Johnston.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department announced Saturday that the nuclear danger area surrounding Johnston Island will be extended 60 miles by Tuesday to a radius of 530 nautical miles at sea level. It will be increased 290 nautical miles at 30,000 feet, to a radius of 990 miles.

The zone will be extended 10,000 feet in altitude to a height of 40,000 feet, where the radius will be 1,050 miles. At 30,000 feet the zone will cover the entire Hawaiian Island chain.

The zone is being extended to mark the "eye burn" area in which there could be a hazard from looking directly at the blast through binoculars, periscopes or other optical instruments. The spokesman said it could lead to permanent eye damage or possible blindness.

He said there will be no hazard to Hawaii residents who view the fireball with the naked eye from surface levels.

The extension announcement indicated the shot will not come before Thursday, in the hours of darkness, because of the four-day warning that is given air lines. A Joint Task Force 8 spokesman indicated a possible firing during next weekend.

Running Feud at Memphis Church Flares

MEMPHIS (AP)—The running feud involving a famed pastor and a fraction of the $9,400 - member Bellevue Baptist Church has flared anew.

The dissident group announced it will hold separate services in a movie theater each Sunday "because we could not get the spiritual food we needed from Dr. Ramsey Pollard's sermons."

The 59-year-old pastor, former head of the 9 - million member Southern Baptist Convention, was in Canada on vacation and could not be reached for comment.

Eugene D. Rutland, vice president of the "Loyal Bellevue Members, Inc.," said about 300 people attended a service held at a

Flurry Made by Candidates on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A flurry of activity marked the Arkansas gubernatorial scene this weekend.

Five candidates appeared before a forum of newsmen at Fort Smith and one formally opened his campaign at Conway.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus stayed at the mansion, nursing an upset stomach and Rep. Dale Alford, who shied away from the forum, because Faubus wouldn't show, hung his "political shingle" at his downtown Little Rock headquarters.

Faubus did not reply to an invitation to the Arkansas Press Association forum. Alford had earlier announced he would not attend if Faubus was absent.

Harold Sadler, a Republican candidate, had other commitments and was unable to attend. Kenneth Coffelt formally opened his campaign with a peppery speech at a Conway rally Saturday night, lashing the Faubus administration as a "bunch of political shysters."

Sunday Coffelt announced a week's schedule calling for "whistle stop" and other appearances at 42 communities in the state.

In his Saturday night talk Coffelt reiterated his pledge to shut down gambling at Hot Springs if elected. He said his first action would be, however, to cut public utility rates 15 per cent.

Coffelt criticized three of his five opponents, saying former governor Sid McMath left office

Train Crash in Argentine Kills 42

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—A commuter train collided in dense fog today with a school bus carrying more than 100 kindergarten children, dragging it hundreds of yards. Officials said 42 persons were killed and about 80 seriously injured.

One of the dead was a woman teacher aboard the bus.

One of the few children to escape unharmed was a little girl who saw the hazy outline of the onrushing train in the fog and jumped through an open window.

Witnesses described the scene as appalling. A rescue worker said "the mauling of these kids was pitiful."

There is a railway crossing barrier at the intersection near the shantytown area of Buenos Aires. But police quoted the bus driver as saying the barrier had been lowered and he never saw the train.

The injured were taken to various hospitals and into homes near the scene of the accident. Hospital officials expressed fears the death toll would increase.

All the children were believed to be six years old or less.

Indicates Steel Clash Doesn't Mean Hostility

BY WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—President Kennedy urged today that critics, business and political, discard "wornout slogans" and join hands with the government to pump new strength and confidence into the nation's economy.

Kennedy vowed his clash with the steel industry did not mean his administration is hostile toward business.

But in a speech prepared for Yale University's commencement, he said the government is obliged to exercise "watchful concern for our economic health" while business and labor must live up to their public responsibilities.

Kennedy said economic problems bearing down on a free economy cannot be solved without separating myth from reality—and he said it is mythical to contend that government is big and getting worse or to argue that deficits in the federal budget always create inflation.

He responded by implication to charges by Republicans, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and some spokesmen for business that his policies touched off recent stock market gyrations.

Among false issues which he said are frustrating efforts to push the economy forward, Kennedy declared "is the assertion that any and all unfavorable turns of the speculative wheel—however temporary and however plainly speculative in character—are the result of 'lack of confidence in the'."

"This, I must tell you, while comforting, is not wholly true. Worse, it obscures the reality—which is also simple. The solid ground of mutual confidence is the necessary partnership of government with all the sectors of our society in the steady quest for economic progress," Kennedy said.

"This administration is not going to give way to general hostility to business merely because there has been a single temporary disagreement with an industry, nor will the future belong to those who ignore the realities of our economic life in a neuritic search for unending reassurance."

"Corporate plans are not based on a political confidence in party leaders," Kennedy said, but on economic confidence in the nation's ability to invest, produce and consume. Business had confidence in Republican administrations of 1929, 1954, 1958 and 1960, he said, "but this was not enough to prevent recession when business lacked full confidence in the economy."

What really matters, Kennedy said, is the capacity of the nation as a whole to deal with problems and opportunities alike.

Former Call House Madam Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Former call house madam Polly Adler, who wrote "A House Is Not a Home" about her experiences, died of cancer Saturday.

Miss Adler, 62, freely admitted in her 1953 book that she spent 25 years running a house of prostitution in New York City.

Miss Adler said she wrote her autobiography because she was left without money by police crackdowns and income tax suits. It sold 100,000 copies.

In the book she told of frequent police raids and of paying thousands in bribes plus entertaining authorities to avoid being put out of business.

She was arrested in 1935 and pleaded guilty to a charge of conducting a disorderly house. She was fined $500 and served 24 days of a 30 day sentence.

A native of Yanow, Russia, she was born Pearl Aler. She became a naturalized citizen in 1929.

When friends offered to help write her book, she turned them down with: "Too many cooks spoil the brothel."

TRANQUILIZER—How can a guy holler when his mouth is full? Ray Ayers' parents in Kent, Ohio, decided he should have a haircut even though he was only eight months old. Due to his long hair too many people were calling him "her." It looked pretty stormy until resourceful dad popped the bottle in Ray's mouth, and clipped the rebellion.

STEEL MAKING SPEED-UP—New type oxygen furnaces are increasing the speed and efficiency with which steel is made. Sketches show the process. Jets of high purity oxygen are directed onto the surface of the molten pig iron, burn out the impurities and convert it into steel. The oxygen process also expedites production from open hearth and electric furnaces. U.S. mills now turn out 4 million tons this way, a fraction of the 98 million yearly tonnage.

The last two cars on the train — a Vista Dome Pullman and a Pullman club car — remained upright. The others twisted in all directions over 500 to 600 feet of the wooded area.

One of the four diesel engines broke in half. All of them spilled oil on the tracks.

Engineer E.H. Lynn and fireman Jerry Haines, both of Missoula, suffered minor cuts. Lynn was quoted by a railroad spokesman as saying the train lost air pressure as it started downhill.

About 100 National Guardsmen plus Red Cross disaster workers and others joined doctors and nurses in helping the wreck victims. The injured were taken to three hospitals.

Of the 219 persons received at the hospitals, 151 were treated and released. Sixty-eight were held for further treatment and observation.

The derailment tore up 500 feet of track. Repairing this damage and clearing the wrecked cars away will take several days. Passenger trains will use a freight line.

The estimate of $1 million in claims and damages was made by a railroad official, who asked that his name not be used.

movie theater Sunday.

He emphasized, however, that the dissatisfied members have no desire to leave Bellevue. They want Dr. Pollard to leave. A move to fire him failed last January.

At the time, a spokesman for the dissidents said: "We feel that Dr. Pollard's arrogance has prevented him from being a good preacher."

The minister also was accused of smoking cigars and buying his wife a $3,000 mink coat.

Pollard ignored the complaint about cigars but said his wife's coat cost a good deal less than $3,000. "In fact it cost a good deal less than $1,000 and of that not a penny came from Bellevue," he said.

Rutland said the new separate services were started "after Dr. Pollard was so vicious in a sermon about people who no longer contribute tithes to Bellevue."

The "Loyal Bellevue Members, Inc." was formed last February.

"completely repudiated," that Alford had shown in Congress his "inability to withstand pressure" and that Faubus had allowed the Public Service Commission to be dominated by utility leaders.

He did not mention the other two Democratic candidates for governor, Vernon Whitten and David Cox.

The speaker hit hardest on the theme that liquor, gambling and utility interests are running the state. He charged that W. R. (Witt) Stephens, president of the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., has "raised your gas bills with the approval of Faubus and his push-button stooges on the Public Service Commission every time the gas company has asked for a raise."

Faubus said Saturday three of his top aides will resign soon to take part in his bid for a fifth term. They are James L. Bland, state Employment Security Division administrator; Arnold Sikes, administrative assistant to Faubus and J. Orville Cheney, chairman of the state Commerce Commission.

All have been associated with Faubus since his first try for office in 1954. Bland managed the run-off campaign that year.

Alford had huge signs and banners, "Alford for Governor" hung outside his headquarters at a Little Rock hotel Saturday and remained there during the day Sunday. Like Coffelt, he has a heavy schedule of appearances during the coming week.

Faubus made two appearances Sunday, one on a KTHV-KTHS radio and television panel at Little Rock and another at the dedication of a new building at the Arkansas Children's Colony at Conway which was named after the incumbent governor.

On the panel show, he said if he had his years in office to re-live, he would make no appreciable changes. This, he said, included his decision to close Little Rock schools during the 1957 integration crisis.

Faubus said he had no knowledge of alleged gambling operations at Hot Springs and added if such gambling was present, it was up to Hot Springs law enforcement officers to act.

The other two Democratic candidates — Vernon Whitten and David Cox — remained silent Sunday.

Apportionment Suit Must Be Retried

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court directed today that a lower court reconsider a suit by a group of New Yorkers challenging constitutionality of apportionment of the New York Legislature.

A three-judge federal court in New York on Jan. 11 dismissed the suit, in which the charge was made that the Senate and Assembly were deliberately apportioned in a manner discriminatory to citizens of metropolitan areas.

The three-judge court ruled the U. S. Constitution's 14th Amendment did not restrict a state from discriminating against geographical areas with respect to voting. In a March 26 decision in a Tennessee case, the Supreme Court decided federal courts had the power and duty to consider constitutionality of such apportionments, and that some could be so unfair as to violate the amendment's guarantee of equal protection of the laws.

After the Supreme Court decision, an appeal was filed asking reversal of the three-judge ruling and an order directing the lower tribunal to reconsider the New York complaint.

The appeal was filed by New York radio station WMCA and its president, R. Peter Straus; and Joseph De Maio, Edward Lind, S. Thomas Delaney, Edward C. Brown and James J. McCafferty. The litigation was begun by WMCA before the three-judge court on May 1, 1961.

While WMCA's appeal was pending, the Supreme Court on April 23 held in a Michigan case that malapportionment is a matter for review before state courts as well as federal courts.

Takes Exception to Criticism

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An Arkansas Bar Association official took exception today to criticism by Winston Chandler of the visit of Vice President Lyndon Johnson of the ABA convention last week.

Chandler, a candidate for U.S. Senator, had questioned the cost of Johnson's visit to Arkansas taxpayers.

Heartill Ragon of Fort Smith immediate past president of the ABA said, "I regret that a guest of our convention is being subjected to inhospitable comments and I desire to set the record straight." He did not mention Chandler by name.

Ragon said Johnson, then a senator, was invited to appear at the 1961 convention but was unable to do so. This year, Ragon said, Johnson was to be in Colorado Springs for a speech at the Air Force Academy and agreed to address the convention on his return trip to Washington.

"Had our convention been the only reason for his trip, I believe the taxpayers would have made an excellent investment," Ragon said.

Theodore Roosevelt was the only U. S. president who didn't use the personal pronoun "I" in his inaugural speech.

Miscellaneous Showers
For Cherry Case
Miss Cherry Case, bride-elect of Jimmy Lloyd, was feted with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the Hope Country Club on Saturday morning, June 9. Hostesses were Misses Penny Franks, Mary Gayle ReRae, and Susy Booth, and Mesdames J. W. Franks, Bin McRae, and Duffie Booth.

The guest of honor wore a figured summer dress of lavender and pinned a corsage of fleur d' amour at her shoulder. Corsages of yellow rosebuds were given to her mother, Mrs. Joy R. Case, and her grandmother, Mrs. Willy Mae Ramsey.

On the mantle was a lovely arrangement of daisies, and the serving table featured a tall arrangement of daisies, yellow roses, and Queen Anne's lace in brass with other attractive bridal decoration.

Assorted snacks and coffee were served to about 35 guests. The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts. Miss Mary Gayle McRae presided at the guest book.

'Movie Star', Listed as Unpleasant

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Allen, the famous motion picture star, died a hero while rescuing his beloved wife from their burning home. So they took Billy back to Charity, Kan., where he grew up and where his parents still lived, for the funeral.

And it was in Charity, before the service, that we picked up Billy's story in "The Movie Star," Sunday night on NBC. It was an unpleasant, ghoulish tale.

Before 60 minutes had passed, we found that Billy's parents had never understood him—never really knew much about him, in fact. His marriage had long been a failure. Worse, Billy was a thorough-going heel. His heroism was a cover-up invented by his manager: the star was too drunk to escape his flaming home. His wife already had decided to leave him.

As the crowning touch, his sister-in-law, staggering drunk at memorial services, arose to scream that her child was Billy's—not that of the brother who had died a hero in Korea.

William Bast, who wrote this macabre play, apparently was attempting to recreate the tasteless atmosphere of carnival surrounding the funeral of a celebrity. They were all there, the souvenir-hunting kids, the cranks and the maniacs who entered into the spirit of it all.

That part was an interesting idea. But the basic device was hardly novel: revealing the real, unattractive person behind the facade of glamor in bits and pieces as the story progresses. The mob hysteria was subordinate to this.

Opponents of Franco Are Jailed

By HAROLD KM MILKS

MADRID (AP) — Hundreds of opponents of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's dictatorship have been reported arrested in a sweeping roundup of dissidents of all political shades.

Five leading monarchists were caught in the dragnet as they returned from a meeting of Spanish oppositionists in Munich, Germany. Three of them refused an offer of exile and were flown today to forced residence in the Canary Islands. Two went into exile in Paris.

Those flown to Fuerte Ventura, second largest of the Canaries, were Joaquin de Salustegui, an executive of the Spanish affiliate of the American-owned Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co.; Fernando Alvarez de Miranda, 40, nephew of the Marquis of Valdivia and a Madrid city employee; and Jaime Miralles, member of a prominent old family.

Families of the three men said they were not allowed to visit them or speak to them after they were arrested during the weekend. Under a new decree they can be kept in forced residence for two years.

The monarchist leaders who chose exile were Jose Maria Gil Robles and Jesus Prados Arrarte, a noted economist and professor at Madrid University.

Says Freeman Sorry About Statement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman now wishes he never said that the Billie Sol Estes case was being ballooned out of all proportions, says Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D. Mundt, senior Republican on the Senate Investigations subcommittee that starts public hearings June 27 on Estes' operations, said he discussed the case with Freeman recently for an hour and a half.

"He indicated that the first statement that he made to the press—when he said it was being one of those statements all of us sometime make but we wish we could retract, because the thing is a lot more serious than he thought it was at the time," said Mundt.

Freeman made the remark at a news conference May 7. Estes, a West Texas promoter and financier, built a multimillion-dollar business on government grain storage, cotton and sales of fertilizer. He was indicted in April for fraud and he has declared himself bankrupt. The Senate subcommittee and a House group are investigating his operations and whether he received favored treatment from federal officials. Mundt said Estes had.

taped for radio and television stations in New York, Mundt continued the Agriculture Department's favoritism to Estes by not requiring him to carry an adequate bond for storing government grain.

Estes' bond was set at $700,000 although he was storing grain valued up to $50 million. Agriculture Department officers have testified before the House subcommittee that the bond was based on an inaccurate audit Estes submitted on his net worth.

Mundt, saying the audit should have been thrown out, called the bond "one of the basic elements of the favoritism displayed. Of course there were others. One of them was when they appointed him to the National Advisory Committee after he had already been fined and was already suing by their own investigators."

This was in reference to the investigation of Estes' scheme of getting other cotton growers' allotments so that he could grow more cotton under price supports. The Agriculture Department finally ruled the plan illegal and fined him $554,172.

Mundt credited career Agriculture Department employees with doing a tremendous job in probing the transfer of cotton allotments to Estes.

The House subcommittee resumes its hearings Wednesday.

yet dreaded to hear. It was me, not my sister, whom he'd always loved but knowing how devoted we were, he remained silent. Forgive him, if I could. How could I do anything else when I was guilty as he!

Should we still say nothing and go our separate ways? I have never married. Or should we confess the truth and throw ourselves upon my sister's mercy? —Desperate

Dear Desperate: You have a conscience else you would not write me. If you suffer pangs of conscience now, what will the torture be when you break up the home of a sister who loved and trusted you? This unwholesome passion for your brother-in-law should have had the scalpel applied to it, as to a catanorous sore, long since. By not building up a life irrespective of him, you are encouraging him, as well as yourself, to wrong-doing.

Edith Wharton's novel, "The Old Maid," was based upon a similar triangle. Read it, or the play. She was sorry for her heroine and I am for you. But one thing is certain: no good can come out of telling your sister.

Dear Helen: My mother and I are at odds over a matter close to my heart. There is a boy who took me to a couple of school dances this spring and has since moved to another town, not a word from him! I want to write him but my mother says he should be the one to get in touch with me. I don't agree. Who is right? My mother says to ask you. —Wondering

Dear Wondering: Your mother is right. Though you may long to hear from your boy friend, the initial step is definitely up to him. He'll probably beat a permanent retreat if you take the aggressive.

Dear Helen: My husband and I are separated. Yesterday I found out that he is seeing other women. I couldn't sleep for thinking of this last night. I was so hurt. Does that mean I still love him? —Numb Wife

Dear Numb: If you really loved him there would be no separation. On the basis of the scant information given, I would say that your pride more than your heart is hurt. A separation is bad for all concerned, including yourself. Tell your husband as much and seek either a reconciliation or divorce.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Divorces, Separations."

Dynasty Issue Up to Voters

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts Republicans threw the dynasty issue at the Democrats today over their convention choice of young Edward M. Kennedy, the President's brother, for the U.S. Senate.

The GOP, with a dynasty problem of its own, moves into Worcester for its convention Saturday. The chief Republican rivals for the U.S. Senate nomination are George Cabot Lodge, son of the former United Nations ambassador and the 1960 GOP nominee for vice president; and U.S. Rep. Laurence Curtis, completing his 10th year in Congress.

At stake is the Senate seat Lodge's father once held until John F. Kennedy defeated him in 1952.

The younger Lodge told a group of convention delegates Sunday at his father's home in Beverly: "I have been lumped with the dynasty by my opponent. The dynasty issue is a good issue and one that I can particularly press against the Democrats."

"I have no brother in the White House, nor do I have an uncle who is speaker of the House, nor have I had a close relative in high elective office for 10 years," he added.

The line about having an uncle who is speaker of the House was a reference to the man Edward defeated at Springfield for the convention endorsement — Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., a nephew of House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

Curtis, who will be 63 in September, hammered away on the issue of "immaturity." "Now that Ted Kennedy has been endorsed," Curtis told a campaign meeting, "it is clear that the Republican party will lose one of its biggest issues unless it has a candidate who can fight hard on the issue of immaturity."

Thought the Democrats were home from Springfield, their bargaining was far from over. In Massachusetts, conventions settle little since candidates who fail to win endorsement can run against the endorsed candidate in September.

Population of Seattle, Wash., increased 194 per cent in the decade between 1900 and 1910.

AACG Meets In Camden
The Arkansas Association of Colored Girls met in connection with their Senior sponsors, the Arkansas Association of Colored Women's Clubs, in Camden, Arkansas June 3-5, 1962.

Miniature models of the senior Federated Clubs are produced through youth clubs sponsored by the Adult clubs throughout the state. Girls between the ages of 6-18 learn club work from the ground floor. Leadership is developed in girls through the experiences of planning and conducting their own meetings.

Theme of the meeting was, "Merits of Youth in Expanding Democracy." The president, Miss Elita Marie Williams of Magnolia, gave her annual address Monday morning. Her subject was, "Where Do We Stand in this Expanding Democracy?" She urged all club girls to take advantage of this great explosion of knowledge; a knowledge of truth will make us free. She stated that, "one of our greatest needs today is the baptism of the right kind of literature."

Requirements for membership was stressed; girls must be of good moral conduct; members of some Sunday School or Church; must pay required dues; must not frequent questionable places; must be loyal to the Pledge, and actively conform to rules and regulations of the club of which she is a member.

One hundred twenty-five (125) girls were in attendance from over the state; twenty-four clubs represented; four new clubs were inducted through the Four Leaf Clover Ceremony.

Brenda Bostic and Mattie Rutherford served as delegates from the Anna P. Strong Junior Club. Mattie Rutherford was elected to the office of State

Jumping to Conclusions Usually Right

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions—(And how many do you agree with?)

We are always taken aback when we meet a fat man or woman with a really mean disposition. They are supposed to be jolly—but why?

The theory behind the average Hollywood epic today seems to be, "If we can't make it good, we can at least make it long."

Anybody who drinks more than five cups of coffee a day is leading a misspent life.

It is popular to knock our modern educational system, but the average high school graduate today can spell better than his parents and has a larger vocabulary.

A man who always wears a white shirt to his office either has an inferiority complex—or no imagination.

For some reason it gives me a secret pleasure when my doctor informs me he has to go see his dentist.

The one thing in the world most people are sure of is that their shoelace never breaks except when they're in a hurry.

Mankind owes a monument to the fellow who first thought up the idea of putting fresh strawberries on vanilla ice cream. It's the best dessert ever invented.

The honeymoon is over when she tells him for the first time: "Lunch money? What did you do with all the money I gave you yesterday?"

The longer and lower the car, the higher the ego.

If you had one year of your life to live over, which would you take? I'd choose the year I went to kindergarten. Isn't it really the happiest period most people ever know?

Manhattan has never been quite the same since they banned organ grinders from the street. Their tinkling music lifted many a brooding passerby out of his blue spell.

Many pretty women have mastered the art of smiling pleasantly but rarely do you meet one who knows how to give a real big hearty laugh. Yet it is one of the pleasantest sounds in nature.

A husband usually suspects his wife is hiding something when she insists that he take the best part of the steak.

The last thing you'll see on an ordinary golf course is a stroke of genius.

Many people get a reputation for having fine literary taste simply because they were too lazy to send back their book club selections.

Anyone who slaps you on the back usually is trying to sell you something.

The most disagreeable of all persons is the one who always tries hard to be agreeable in everything.

Catholics to Integrate in Georgia

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church has ordered Atlanta archdiocesan schools desegregated this fall in a move supported by leading Catholic laymen and the mayor of Atlanta.

The historic decision applied to Catholic schools in the 71 north Georgia counties of the archdiocese where about 7,500 pupils are enrolled. The total includes 735 negroes, all in Atlanta.

Archbishop Paul J. Hallinan said it was up to local bishops elsewhere in the archdiocesan province to decide what action to take in their areas. That included other sections of Georgia as well as North and South Carolina and Florida, all under the archbishop's titular control.

The desegregation decision was announced in a pastoral letter read during Sunday services in all the churches of the north Georgia archdiocese.

"Catholic children, regardless of race or color, will be admitted to Catholic schools of the archdiocese as of Sept. 1, 1962," the letter said.

"I think it is something long overdue," commented Catholic layman G. Albert Lawton, president of Georgia International Life Insurance Co., who moved to Atlanta from Connecticut three years ago. His two children attend Catholic schools in Rhode Island and New York.

Another Catholic layman, Superior Court Judge Sam P. McKenzie of the Atlanta Judicial Circuit, said he was confident the Archbishop "will get the support of a great majority of the Catholics in the archdiocese."

McKenzie, who has three children in Atlanta Catholic schools, said he believed "that in an enlightened community the people will accept the decision in the right spirit and in the spirit that it was made."

Mayor Ivan Allen Jr., a Presbyterian said he was "certain Atlanta and north Georgia people would show the same courtesy and consideration that was shown in the integration of the Atlanta public schools last fall."

Four high schools admitted nine Negroes at that time. One after returned to her old school at her request.

The peaceful lowering of racial barriers was lifted by the archbishop as one reason for the Church action now about three months after New Orleans' 1953 archdiocesan school with about 75,000 pupils were ordered integrated.

Morrilton Paper Sold to Group

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—The Morrilton Headlight, a weekly newspaper, has been purchased for an undisclosed amount by a new corporation formed by two Morrilton officials and a Conway man.

The Headlight was owned and operated by Earle Haynes, who was editor before he died April 17. His widow announced sale of the paper.

The purchasers are City Attorney Felver A. Rowell Jr.; Alderman Jack Bland, head of the mechanical department for the paper; and Herman Hesson, an employee of the Conway Log Cabin Democrat.

One For My Dame

By JACK WEBB

Illustrated by Margaret Sampson. Art Copyright © 1962 by Jack Webb.

There was only one thing wrong with May. She was much too pretty. Beauty can be a handicap.

From the first moment I saw her, when she was a foster kid of eight living with the Johnsons next to us, May was the most beautiful human on the face of this earth—to me. They trouble was, people were so astonished by her looks that they never got to know how charming, intelligent, and really warm May was.

At 15 May was tall and slim, with perfect features, honey hair like a soft breeze. At 15 I was a clumsy kid. One day a photographer stopped May on the street and the next thing we knew there was her smiling face on a magazine cover and the 56-year-old publisher of the mag arriving in his chauffeured car at the Johnson house several nights later.

When he asked May to marry him, when she was still in her teens, the Johnsons thought it was a good thing. How many orphan kids marry rich?

The marriage lasted two years. May never found love. She was merely a beautiful live doll for the old boy to dress up, be seen in society photo photos with.

The main trouble with being beautiful is you attract the wrong type of joker. When May was 19, and I was stumbling into college, she married Howard, an intense and sophisticated character of 35 who had once been a promising movie director—until he began looking in the bottle for his moods. He considered May's beauty his chance to get back in the Hollywood saddle.

While in the Army I began seeing shots of May in the fan mags. She looked so pretty you could hardly believe she was real. Howard worked her without mercy: singing, dancing, dramatic lessons. He wasn't a phony, actually tried to make May a star. But May simply wasn't an actress, never wanted to be one. Howard worked so hard pushing May's career, his heart gave out.

The End

She introduced me to her daughter, told me, "I'm married against and this

Giants Stung by Cardinals in Doubleheader

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

As certain as death and taxes that's a San Francisco Giants swoon in June.

In each of their first four seasons in San Francisco, the Giants had stormed into June in or very close to first place in the National League standings only to fall flat on their faces in the month of honeymoons and traditional bliss.

This year, their fifth on the West Coast, has been no exception. They absorbed two more defeats at the hands of the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday—6-5 and 13-3—extending their losing streak to six straight games.

The double defeat, coupled with Los Angeles' double triumph over Houston, by scores of 9-3 and 9-7, dropped the Giants 2½ games behind the league leading Dodgers. Only a week ago the Giants led the Dodgers two games.

The Giants' Junolapse is one of those believe-it-or-nots. Take a look:

1958—The Giants were in first place on June 1, enjoying a one-game lead over Milwaukee. They lost 14 of their next 20 to drop into third place, 3½ games off the pace.

1959—The Giants were in second place, a game in back of Milwaukee on June 1. They lost 9 of their next 16 to fall two games behind.

1960—The Giants were in first place on May 30, leading Pittsburgh by one game. They lost 17 of their next 22 to skid into third place 6½ games behind.

1961—The Giants were in first place on May 20, leading Los Angeles by a game and a half. They lost 8 of their next 10 to fall into third place, two games off the pace.

Pittsburgh took two games from Milwaukee 12-8 and 3-2. Cincinnati split with Philadelphia, winning the second game, 9-2 after the Phillies had won the opener, 7-5. Chicago after losing the first game, 2-1, came from behind with three runs in the ninth and one in the 10th to win the second game 5-4 from New York.

Minnesota climbed into a virtual first place tie with New York in the American League, downing the Chicago White Sox twice, 8-4 and 11-7 while Baltimore was Los Angeles took two from Kansas City 14-6 and 6-5 to move into fourth place past the Detroit Tigers who were set back twice by Washington 2-1 and 5-4. Cleveland whipped Boston 9-4 after the Red Sox had won the opener 4-3 in 11 innings.

A turnaway crowd of 33,679, largest at Busch Stadium in 10 years, saw the Cardinals stretch their winning streak to seven games, which began after eight straight losses. Home runs by Curt Flood and Stan Musial highlighted the double triumph.

Don Drysdale pitched a six-hitter for his 10th victory and first baseman Ron Fairly drove in four runs with a triple, double and two singles in the Dodgers' first-game triumph over Houston. Catcher Norm Sherry batted in four runs in the nightcap, three with a home run in a six-run sixth inning. Don Buddin hit a grand slam homer for the Colts.

Andre Rodgers' run-scoring double off relief pitcher Ken McKenzie in the 10th after pinch hitter Ernie Banks' game-tying three-run homer in the ninth, gave the Cubs a split with the Mets. New York scored the tie-breaking run in the opener on a wild pitch by Dick Ellsworth in the sixth.

The Mets led 4-1 in the nightcap with two out and nobody on base in the bottom of the ninth. Then third baseman Red Kaniel bodied Dick Bertell's bouncer, Bob Will walked and Banks crashed his 15th home run on an 0-2 count.

Fenwick Takes Hope Open Tournament

Henry Fenwick edged Charles Carver on the 19th hole in a sudden death playoff to win the Hope Open Golf Tournament Sunday. Both golfers shot 76 for the regulation 18 holes.

The use of summer rules and tricky pin placement prevented golfers from playing boldly thus causing unusually high scores. Only 13 birdies were scored during the entire afternoon.

Qualifying for the July 4 four-ball tournament will begin Saturday, June 16 and will continue through July 1. Other scores in the Sunday tournament:

Championship Flight: Henry Fenwick, 76, Charles Carver, 76, Gordon Bayless, 78, George Peck, 80, Russell Carver, 80, Jim Smith, 80, Robert O'Neal, 83, Jack McClendon, withdrew.

College of Ozarks Picks Lon Qualls

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)

Lon Qualls, former Clarksville and Harrisburg high school coach, was named Saturday head coach at the College of the Ozarks.

Qualls compiled a 49-21-4 record at the two high school posts. His appointment is effective Sept. 1. The new coach succeeds Don Jones, who will limit his duties to athletic director and basketball coach. Qualls will also serve as associated professor of physical education.

Kenneth Larson, who served as assistant to Qualls at Clarksville for the past five years, will go to the Ozarks in the same capacity Qualls said.

Qualls, a native of Clarksville, was Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference "Back of the Year" in 1953 and was a first-team all-AIC selection three consecutive years. He received his bachelor's degree from the Ozarks in 1955 and his master's degree at the University of Arkansas in 1959.

Larson, a 1956 Ozarks graduate, is studying for a master's degree at Southwestern State College in Oklahoma.

Woman Is Shot While Fishing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 70-year-old woman fishing in Old River was shot in the neck with a .22 caliber rifle Sunday.

Mrs. Asa Smith of North Little Rock was reported in satisfactory condition at a Little Rock hospital today.

Authorities said two shots were fired, several minutes, the second one striking Mrs. Smith. Source of the fire was unknown, authorities said.

Five Drown, Death Toll Reaches 17

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The warm June weekend brought out swimmers and fishermen across Arkansas resulting in five persons drowning Sunday, including two brothers and two young sisters.

Their deaths brought to 17 the number dying violently in Arkansas during the week ended last midnight.

In addition to the drownings Sunday, two persons died in separate highway actions.

Two young sisters from Harrisburg drowned in a stockpond near their home while swimming with a group of youngsters.

Officers said Geraldine Lacy, 11, and Diana Louise Lacy, 8, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lacy of Harrisburg, apparently wandered into deep water in the pond on Wayne Mills' farm two miles west of Harrisburg.

Their bodies were recovered in 8-12 feet of water.

In a second double drowning, brothers Henry and Joe Monday of Harrison lost their lives in the Horseshoe Bend area of Bull Shoals lake while attempting to retrieve a drifting boat.

Sheriff Doyle Hickman said the pair had been on a family outing and was preparing to return home when a sudden storm came up, causing the boat to drift from shore.

Hickman said Henry, 26, jumped into the lake and swam 50 feet but encountered trouble and his 24-year-old brother dove in to render aid.

The sheriff said the younger brother made three dives under water searching for Henry and then failed to surface himself.

Joe's body was recovered after an hour's search and his brother's was retrieved late Sunday night by a skin diver.

The fifth Sunday drowning victim was W. G. (Steve) Stevens, about 60, of Pine Bluff, whom officers said apparently fell from a boat while fishing in the Old White River Cutoff near Clarendon.

His body was found in eight feet of water.

Earl Boyer, 60, of Jonesboro, was killed Sunday when he apparently lost control of his car and rammed head-on into another car three miles south of Jonesboro on state Highway 1.

State Trooper Jerry Maynard said Boyer's car struck a car driven by Dale Mashburn, 27, also of Jonesboro. Boyer's wife and two children were hospitalized as they were Mashburn, his wife and 4-month-old son.

Alice Faye Bailey, 8, of Hermitage, was killed while crossing one of the lanes of state Highway 15, one mile north of Warren.

State Trooper Bill Watson said the youngster apparently walked into the path of a car driven by Carl D. Hughes, 18, also of Hermitage.

During the week, seven died in traffic accidents, seven drowned, two were stabbed to death and one was killed while crossing one of the lanes of state Highway 15, one mile north of Warren.

Twins Pushing Yankees for American Lead

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

There is some question regarding Rich Rollins' rookie status but no one questions the right of the sensational Minnesota third baseman to be rated among the American League's most valuable players in his first full season in the majors.

The 24-year-old bonus prize was red hot again Sunday as the Twins conquered the Chicago White Sox twice, 8-4, 11-7 to climb into a virtual first-place tie with New York. Rollins rapped five hits, drove in three runs and scored three times.

The Yankees, beaten twice by Baltimore, 5-1 and 7-2, still hold a mathematical edge over the Twins. They have a 31-21 record for a .566 percentage compared to Minnesota's 34-24 and .586.

The Los Angeles Angels swept past Detroit into fourth place by beating Kansas City twice 14-6 and 6-5 while the Tigers were losing two to Washington 2-1 and 5-4. Cleveland downed Boston 9-3 after the Red Sox had won the opener 4-3 in 11 innings.

The Los Angeles Dodgers opened up a 2½ game bulge over second-place San Francisco, winning two from Houston 9-3 and 9-7 as the St. Louis Cardinals were administering a double licking to the Giants, 6-5 and 13-3. Pittsburgh defeated Milwaukee twice 12-8 and 8-2.

Cincinnati split with Philadelphia, winning 9-2 after a 7-5 loss. Chicago's Cubs gained a split with New York's Mets, winning the second game 5-4 in 10 innings after a 2-1 setback.

Rollins raised his league-leading batting average to .356. He reached base six straight times before relief pitcher Ed Fisher struck him out in the sixth inning of the nightcap. He cracked two singles, walked and hit his ninth homer in the opener and then singled and drove in two runs with a triple in the nightcap.

The stocky infielder joined the Twins from Charlotte in mid-season of 1961 and made only 17 plate appearances last year.
